

Consent to Biblical Discipleship Counseling And Release of Liability Form

What is Expected of You?

It is our (ACTS) belief that change must begin with ourselves as we look to Jesus Christ for the power to change. Therefore, we ask you (counselee) to approach the counseling and encouragement process as an opportunity for personal change and spiritual growth. We ask that you refrain from the temptation of focusing on others, and instead we ask you to focus on what changes God desires to make in your life, in the midst of your circumstances. Be advised that you will be assigned “homework.” Homework is a vital part of the change process; therefore, completion of the homework assignments before your next session is expected.

CONFIDENTIALITY CLAUSE

- 1) Absolute confidentiality is not scriptural. In certain circumstances the Bible requires that facts be disclosed to select others (Matthew 18:15ff). In these areas we follow the guidelines of ACTS. When your church leadership inquires, we will disclose to them the information they need to effectively and biblically fulfill their responsibility to shepherd you.
- 2) The privacy and confidentiality of our conversations and records are a privilege of yours and are protected by our ethical principles in all but a few circumstances. BY LAW, there are certain situations in which information about individuals undergoing counseling may be released with or without their permission. These situations are as follows: (Romans 13:1-3)
 - A. Where it is proven that children are physically abused, neglected, or sexually abused;
 - B. In emergency situations where it is proven that there may be danger to the counselee or others, as with homicide or suicide, confidentiality may be broken;
 - C. If a court of law issues a legitimate subpoena relating to a child abuse case, we are required by law to provide the information specifically described in the subpoena;
 - D. If an unreported life-threatening felony has been committed, we are required by law to report it to the police.
- 3) We reserve the right to consult with others or appropriate church ministry staff members regarding your sessions. This consultation will be held in the same level of confidence as your sessions. This will involve issues such as:
 - A. Church discipline matters
 - B. Seeking wise counsel to help address the matter in a thorough manner

- C. Reporting to other leaders on the status of counseling when feasible and appropriate
- D. Training of other counselors to learn how to handle cases of the same nature

Resolution of Disagreements

If a dispute should arise between the counselee and the counselor regarding the session or the counselor’s advice or conduct, one should bring this dispute to the attention of the Director of the Biblical Discipleship Counseling Ministry of ACTS. If the dispute cannot be resolved at this level, all parties agree to resolve such dispute by submitting to the Conflict Resolution Team of the ACTS for full and final resolution and conciliation. Both, the counselee and the counselor agree not to take this matter to any secular court system. (1 Corinthians 6:1-7)

Waiver of Liability

The undersigned counselee, having sought biblical discipleship counseling as adhered to by Acts Community Church, a nonprofit religious organization, hereby acknowledges their understanding of the above stated conditions and therefore releases from liability the Acts Community Church and any/all participating churches, pastors, agents or employees, from a claim or litigation whatsoever arising from the undersigned’s participation in the above-mentioned biblical discipleship counseling ministry.
